DISCUSS CHARGES MADE AGAINST JOHN C. BURKE

All Action on Case is Being Held Up

Until Attorney General is Heard From.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Under instructions from Secy. Garrison, Major Boggs, chief purchasing agent of the Panama canal commission, was in conference Thursday with officials of the department of justice regarding the charges that John E. Burke, manager of the commissary department of the Panama railroad, collected commissioners on purchases made for the railroad.

The special agents who have been investigating these charges in Europe, where some of the purchases were made, have not yet reported and their evidence is believed to be essential to a complete consideration of the charges.

Secy. Garrison is awaiting a decision from Attorney Gen. McReynolds as to whether Burke is an employee of the government before deciding upon the course to be pursued.

The News-Times Complimented by Everybody

WE are daily receiving congratulations from all classes of readers for our generous offer in distributing, practically free, the wonderful IMPERIAL EMBROIDERY OUTFIT, containing in all 160 of the very latest Embroidery Patterns, including the New All-Metal Hoop and Booklet of Instructions.

All Classes Need It

The woman of means needs it, because she enjoys the experience of creating something beautiful or useful with her own hands, and because nothing can take the place of dainty hand embroidered fabrics.

The woman of lesser means prizes it because it is the means of supplying better things for herself and children to wear at a trifling expense. The woman of moderate income can, by the use of this Outfit, wear just as pretty things as her more fortunate sister.

6 Coupons and 68c Secures It
